INTRODUCTION

Dear brother, dear sister, dear reader,

We appreciate immensely that you hold in your hands the guiding document for the animation of the pastoral life in our parish Saint Patrick in 2021-2022.

It is a working tool for all pastoral agents as it indicates to them the content of their responsibilities in their respective assignments; it is a guiding lamp for all Christians, groups and communities as it organizes in a systematic way the unfolding of their activities planned for the year; this document also serves as a parish directory to inform everyone about the organization of the pastoral life of the parish. It is indeed an important document and we encourage you to get a copy for yourself and for your loved ones.

This year, our diocese is joining Pope Francis to celebrate the Year of the Family, while praying fervently for the gift of a proper pastor (Bishop) during this time of vacancy of the Episcopal see. Celebrating the family is an opportunity for proposing the Gospel anew to families, more especially in the context of challenges and ills affecting families in general.

St Patrick Parish dreams of making all her families shine with the Joy of Jesus-Christ, a joy that makes families happy in themselves, more loving, forgiving, sensitive and compassionate. The context of war and insecurity urges us to seek ways by which victims of wars and losses could find strength and hope to stand strong. We have the duty to help them find around them a family even when they might have lost a close person.

May this year be an opportunity for a better attention to our respective families, and more especially for growth in both human and spiritual values. A fruitful year to us all!

The Parish Priest,

Rev. Fr. Lewis Devy NGANTCHOUKO

AN ABSTRACT FROM AMORIS LAETITIA

[CHAPTER TWO]

THE EXPERIENCES AND CHALLENGES OF FAMILIES

31. The welfare of the family is decisive for the future of the world and that of the Church. Countless studies have been made of marriage and the family, their current problems and challenges. We do well to focus on concrete realities, since “the call and the demands of the Spirit resound in the events of history”, and through these “the Church can also be guided to a more profound understanding of the inexhaustible mystery of marriage and the family”.⁸ I will not attempt here to present all that might be said about the family today. Nonetheless, because the Synod Fathers examined the situation of families worldwide, I consider it fitting to take up some of their pastoral insights, along with concerns derived from my own experience.

The current reality of the family

32. “Faithful to Christ’s teaching we look to the reality of the family today in all its complexity, with both its lights and shadows... Anthropological and cultural changes in our times influence all aspects of life and call for an analytic and diversified approach”.⁹ Several decades ago, the Spanish bishops noted that families have come to enjoy greater freedom “through an equitable distribution of duties, responsibilities and tasks”; indeed, “a greater emphasis on personal communication between the spouses helps to make family life more humane”, while “neither today’s society nor that to which we are progressing allow an uncritical survival of older forms and models”.¹⁰ It is also evident that “the principal tendencies in anthropological-cultural changes” are leading “individuals, in personal and family life, to receive less and less support from social structures than in the past”. 11

33. On the other hand, “equal consideration needs to be given to the growing danger represented by an extreme individualism which weakens family bonds and ends up considering each member of the family as an isolated unit, leading in some cases to the idea that one’s personality is shaped by his or her desires, which are considered absolute”. 12 “The tensions created by an overly individualistic culture, caught up with possessions and pleasures, leads to intolerance and hostility in families”. 13 Here I would also include today’s fast pace of life, stress and the organization of society and labour, since all these are cultural factors which militate against permanent decisions. We also encounter widespread uncertainty and ambiguity. For example, we rightly value a personalism that opts for authenticity as opposed to mere conformity. While this can favour spontaneity and a better use of people’s talents, if misdirected it can foster attitudes of constant suspicion, fear of commitment, self-centredness and arrogance. Freedom of choice makes it possible to plan our lives and to make the most of ourselves. Yet if this freedom lacks noble goals or personal discipline, it degenerates into an inability to give oneself generously to others. Indeed, in many countries where the number of marriages is decreasing, more and more people are choosing to live alone or simply to spend time together without cohabiting. We can also point to a praiseworthy concern for justice; but if misunderstood, this can turn citizens into clients interested solely in the provision of services.

34. When these factors affect our understanding of the family, it can come to be seen as a way station, helpful when convenient, or a setting in which rights can be asserted while relationships are left to the changing winds of personal desire and circumstances. Ultimately, it is easy nowadays to confuse genuine freedom with the idea that each individual can act arbitrarily, as if there were no truths, values and principles to provide guidance, and everything were possible and permissible. The ideal of marriage, marked by a commitment to exclusivity and stability, is swept aside whenever it proves inconvenient or tiresome. The fear of loneliness and the desire for stability and fidelity exist side by side with a growing fear of entrapment in a relationship that could hamper the achievement of one's personal goals.

35. As Christians, we can hardly stop advocating marriage simply to avoid countering contemporary sensibilities, or out of a desire to be fashionable or a sense of helplessness in the face of human and moral failings. We would be depriving the world of values that we can and must offer. It is true that there is no sense in simply decrying present-day evils, as if this could change things. Nor it is helpful to try to impose rules by sheer authority. What we need is a more responsible and generous effort to present the reasons and motivations for choosing marriage and the family, and in this way to help men and women better to respond to the grace that God offers them.]

5. PASTORAL OF STRUCTURES

*These structures are indispensable for the smooth running of parishes. The pastoral of structures consist of the three main organs that organize, program and supervise activities in parish. They are the PPC (Parish Pastoral Council), the PTPA (Parish Team of Pastoral Animation), the Council for the economic affairs.

Besides, the parish priest has the responsibility to instruct the members of the each structure on the following:

- That the presence of leaders of various structures at different deanery and diocesan meetings be effective;
- That all reports should respect the five different levels of pastoral for a better exploitation;
- That the Parish pastoral council president and other statutory pastoral agents are sensitized to always participate in CODEL meetings.

5.1. The PPC (Parish Pastoral Council)

It is the highest administrative organ of the parish supervised by the Parish Priest assisted by the Parish pastoral Chair Person. It is an instrument of communion, participation, co-responsibility and collaboration between the parish priest, his immediate collaborators and the entire people of God who are under his pastoral care.

The Parish Pastoral Council possesses only a consultative voice (Canon 536§2). Its main objective is to lead the lay faithful who are participants of the function of Christ who is priest, prophet and King, to assume fully their own responsibility in the pastoral activity and the life of the church. It is also to inform, to form, and to guide the councillors. Furthermore it is to favour pastoral activities at all levels in the parish through evangelization, development, finances, realization of project, socio-cultural animations etc.

It should program, follow up, evaluate and make suggestions for the smooth running of the pastoral activity of the whole parish in particular and the diocesan and universal church in general.

The mandate of the members of the PPC is three years renewable once. The mandate can be terminated through resignation approved by the parish priest, through removal by the parish priest after having considered the views of other members of the bureau for a serious offence or a situation which is incompatible with the spirit of the Parish Pastoral Council or the Church.

What is expected from the members and the Bureau of the Parish Pastoral Council:

- The members of the council be chosen according to their availability and engagement and that they must actually participate in the parish, deanery and diocesan activities
- It must hold its three statutory meetings
- The president should be trained on how to carry out his functions
- The mandate of the members should be respected and renewable once.
- The PPC should follow up the maintenance of archives.
- The PPC Bureau must effectively hold its monthly meeting.
- The Bureau must see to it that all commissions are active and functioning.
- It should be made up of delegates or representatives from all groups and Christian movements present in the parish.
- The PPC meets trice a year (in September, February and June) for ordinary meetings, and once every year (in July or August) for the Parish Pastoral session. In September, the PPC meets to present the Parish Pastoral Plan and adopt it, as well as the annual budget; In February, it meets for the mid-way evaluation of the pastoral year; and lastly in June to evaluate the pastoral year in view of the pastoral session for all parishioners and resource persons of the parish. This session enables the PTPA and the parish priest to elaborate the Parish Pastoral Plan for the following year.
- The presence of the parish pastoral council's representatives at the parish, deanery or diocesan meetings is compulsory especially for the President and the Secretary who can always send their representatives.

- With the parish priest, the President and the Secretary should have a broad knowledge of all that is going on in the parish as a whole.

Psalm 143 (Lord, listen to my prayer)

Psalm 31 (In you, O Lord, I take refuge)

Psalm 130 (Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord)

Psalm 16 (Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you)

Psalm 88 (Lord my God, I call for help by day)

- One member reads a Scripture passage from the Bible, preferably the Gospel of the following day for the Liturgy.

- Brief meditation or sharing over the Gospel (what have we understood? What lesson do we draw from it?)

- Spontaneous intercession (each member of the family expresses a prayer intention to God and all respond: «Lord graciously hear us» or any other response).

- Canticle of Simeon (all together):

Save us, Lord, while we are awake; protect us while we sleep; that we may keep watch with Christ and rest with him in peace.

At last, all-powerful Master (all make the sign of the cross) You give leave to your servant go in peace, according to your promise.

For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared for all nations, the light to enlighten the Gentiles and give glory to Israel, your people. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Save us, Lord, while we are awake; protect us while we sleep; that we may keep watch with Christ and rest with him in peace.

- Concluding Prayer and blessing (to be taken by a parent or the eldest among the members):

In your mercy, Lord, dispel the darkness of this night. Let your household so sleep in peace, that at the dawn of a new day, they may, with joy, waken in your name. Through Christ our Lord.

Or

Visit this house, we pray you, Lord: drive far away from it all the snares of the enemy. May your holy angels stay here and guard us in peace, and let your blessing be always upon us. Through Christ our Lord.

Or

Lord our God, restore us again by the repose of sleep after the fatigue of our daily work: so that, continually renewed by your help, we may serve you in body and soul. Through Christ our Lord.

Blessing: May the Lord grant us a quiet night and a perfect end. Amen

- Hail Holy Queen or We fly to thy patronage or Hail Mary.

Prayer of Commitment by all the faithful

God our Father, you desire to gather us all in your Son Jesus Christ, and You invite us to join your mission. Answering your call and love at the start of this new pastoral year dedicated as the year of the family,

I promise to actively and consciously work for my parish and to collaborate with others according to the new life project of our parish pastoral plan.

Relying on the strength of the Holy Spirit, the principal agent of evangelization, I promise to assume my part of responsibility among my brothers and sisters so that this pastoral project should mobilise all Christians and encourage each one to construct the Church- Family of God in my parish.

Contemplating the Holy Trinity and the Holy Family of Nazareth, let me go beyond myself to live in harmonious communion with others.

May I never miss the grace of Jesus Christ, and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and saint Joseph in persevering in my commitment.

Glory be to you, Father, glory be to your Son and to the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever, Amen.
